

Privacy Policy

Information about YOU

Peak District Survival School only collect information about you as part of your purchasing items or booking courses procedure or when you select to join our mailing list. We will only use this information to contact you and to post your order. For this we need your postal address and email address. If you want to unsubscribe it only requires you to email us with 'unsubscribe' in the subject bar, phone us and ask or write to us at the address on the contact page. We will never share, disclose or sell your information unless required to do so by law or to help the police with their work.

E-commerce gateway

Our e-commerce provider will be PayPal. Neither PayPal nor Peak District Survival School keep credit card details on their servers. All purchases are encrypted, so your communication between our website and our payment gateway are secure. We think it's best that your details are your own and should stay that way.

External Links

This site contains links to other websites. Peak District Survival School is not responsible for the privacy practices, actions, or the content of their links although we only link to organisations we recommend and think highly of.

Unsolicited Commercial Mailings (UCE)

We delete 'SPAM'. It's pointless emailing it through.

Contacting us
